

Integrated environment and quality policy

15/01/2020 rev.01

CELME Srl considers as a fundamental part of its activity the achievement of its products and service's high quality standard, its workers' health and security and an effective environment protection. On this purpose, it offers its human and economic resources and its instruments, to continuously improve products and services quality, environment protection and workers' health. Celme undertakes to increasingly rise its customers satisfaction, as crucial prerequisite to develop and guarantee the company success.

In order to achieve the above listed targets, Celme Srl commits to:

- Define, apply and keep valid an Environmental Management System, compliant with UNI EN ISO 14001:2015 regulation;
- Define, apply and keep valid a Quality Management System, compliant with UNI EN ISO 9001:2015 regulation;
- Guide the Company processes, taking into account the content trying to meet the satisfaction of all parties involved in its operations, carefully evaluating possible risks related to its daily activity and opting for solutions that have a less impact on environment, that reduces energy consumption and natural resources exploitation;
- Guarantee the apply of a Quality and Environmental Management System to regulate its whole business procedures and operations;
- Carefully manage industrial waste, taking any action to allow recycling and reuse, when possible;
- Comply with the requirements, or any other applicable law and regulation;
- Guarantee an adequate training to its workers focused on environmental and quality standards;
- Pretend from its partners the fulfilment on respecting the environment and clime , through cooperation and actions moved by the aim of environmental impact reduction, whenever possible;
- Design, manage and create its products and service in order to fully meet is Customers' expectation in terms of quality standard, taking care of product life cycle, supply phases and waste disposal;
- Develop an adequate system to monitor the quality level of its activities and potential impact on environment;
- Continuously improve and develop its Management system;
- Promote the proactive involvement of all liable parties to guarantee an effective apply of Company Integrated policy;
- Promote the Company growth, bearing on mind its workers' satisfaction, the environmental protection and its customers' expectation.

Managing Direction

PASQUETTO DANIELE